Women's Athletic Ass'n Challenges Faculty Men

Repeating its success of last year, a W. A. A. week will again be sponsored this semester. The W. A. A. has marked the period between May 3 to 7 to be observed.

Numerous activities for the period were announced this week by Eldris Burrowes, chairman of the affair.

W. A. A. Week was inaugurated last year by Virginia Kyriazi, and was acclaimed to be a complete success, according to those in charge.

Demonstrations by commercial firms, interscholastic athletic events, and a noon recreation will feature the affair.

Starting next Monday, the program will be as follows:

On Monday between the hours of 12 and 1, the W. A. A. girls will tangle with the Faculty Men in a baseball game. Said Prexy Lau, "We'll see if the appellation 'men' is deserved."

Nominations for officers for the next semester will be held in Annex A7 between 11-21 on Tuesday. Requirements for president and vice-president are: Candidate must have served on the board for at least one semester; must have at least a "C" scholastic average, and must have credit for at least one W. A. A. sport.

The secretarial candidates must have at least a "C" average and must have been a resident student of the college for at least one year.

Between the hours of 10-2 a shoe clinic and study of kinesology will be held through the courtesy of Sommer & Kaufmann Shoe Co.

The shoe clinic will be continued on Wednesday when the W.A.A. will also sponsor the noon dance.

On Thursday Bobbie Sandeen will be in charge of a basket ball exhibit and at noon the W.A.A. will sponsor noon recreation for the faculty only. Thursday will also be the day of the election of officers for the W. A. A. Election will be held from 8 to 4 in the Student Body office.

Kappa Delta Tau, active unit of the W. A. A., will give an exhibition from 7 until 10 p. m. This will be the evening bracer which is under the chairmanship of Berta Bolander, and members of the student body are invited to attend.

1012 VOTES IN RECORD POLL RUN-OFF FOR WHITE, BAILEY

Students Express Slight Favor For Tri-Weekly Paper in Golden Gater Poll

Results of the poll of student opinion on the Golden Gater held in conjunction with the Student Body election Wednesday showed a slight majority of the students in favor of the paper being issued three times per week as it is this semester.

Four hundred and seventy persons indicated their preference for the Golden Gater to be published three times weekly as it is this semester against 425 favoring publication of the paper twice weekly.

Clarice Dechent, director of the Board of Publications, signified that the poll was taken in order to get a cross section of student opinion on the subject, and that the results do not in any way signify the action of the Board on the matter.

A. W. S. To Hold Election of Officers on Wednesday

Following on the eve of the student body election, A. W. S. officers are to be elected Wednesday, May 5, with the polls opening at 9 o'clock and closing at 4.

Participants in the contest for offices follow:

President: Victoria Regier, Frances Bolander.

Secretary: Dorothy Person, Betty Zech, Lorraine Arata.

Treasurer: Betty Brown, Claire Schumacher, Marie Quartararo.

Lone nominee for vice-president of the organization is Frances Lynne.

Officials in charge urge a large turnout at the polls on Wednesday.

Resolution Passed

Attracting little attention from student voters, the resolution regarding limitation of the number of representative offices to be held was voted for in the affirmative by three hundred and seventy-nine students with seventy-five opposing it.

Following is the resolution in original form:

Resolved, "That no person may hold an office in more than one group having representation on the Executive Board."

Keller, Laugesen, and Chamberlin Win Berths On Board of Publications

Landsliding through in a surprise victory, William J. J. Smith was announced student body president of San Francisco State College late Wednesday afternoon.

Setting an all time record for number of votes cast on a student body election, 1012 students expressed their preference for student body officers Wednesday. "Approximately ninety per cent of the full time students voted in this election," said Leo C. Nee.

Dawn Wilson, polling one of the largest majorities ever recorded at State, emerged victor of the race for vice-presidency.

Remaining to be "run off" is the office of student body secretary. Edith White, low senior, and Kay Bailey of the high sophomore class are competing today for this position.

The three cornered and much publicized race for treasurer was won by George Mirande, State Athletic manager.

Office of director of publications was won by Howard Demeke and new members who are to act with him on the board include Nola Keller, Bob Chamberlin and Roy Laugesen.

Yell Leader at future State functions will be Monk Delma who worked as an assistant to Bud Decker for the past semester.

Dr. Alfred Fisk Plans Summer Oriental Tour

Dr. Alfred G. Fisk, of State's Philosophy Department, is planning to conduct a two months' tour of the Orient this coming summer. He and Mrs. Fisk are organizing a party which plans to leave San Francisco on June 23rd, touching at Hawaii and going on to Japan and China.

Mrs. Fisk, we are told, was born in China and her father is at present in Harbin, Manchuria. It is eight years since they have been together. He will meet the party in Mukden and conduct them through Manchuria and Korea.

Dr. and Mrs. Fisk have friends prominent in the government at Nanking and others at Peiping, and these contacts will enrich the trip by bringing the party into more intimate touch with what is going on in the Orient. Dr. Fisk will himself give three lectures, part of a series to be given on the boat going over.

Hail the Victor

To the victor belong the spoils, and so to Will Smith goes this editorial. Congratulations, on your victory. Congratulations from your supporters and your opponents.

Three years ago, when Smith entered State he had an objective. Wednesday that objective was attained when an overwhelming majority of the students cast their votes for Smith for president.

The hottest election in the history of State is over. More votes were cast in Wednesday's election than in any other in the history of the college. State spirit soared to a new high, and why? To elect Smith President of the Associated Students of San Francisco State College.

Will Smith has earned this high honor. He has been a leader of student activities since his entrance at State. He has served as editor of the Gater, as an active member of more campus clubs than we have space to name, and as chairman of the recent Fair, as well as being a member of innumerable college committees.

It's all over, and the new president of the student body is none other than . . . WILLIAM J. J. SMITH. Congratulations, and good luck.

Chamberlin's Tripe

By Bob Chamberlin

Just in case any of the brilliants around this institution think that the news in this issue is a bit behind, may we advise them that it is purely and very simply a souvenir . . . at least that's the best excuse we can think of at the moment.

Guess we'll have a last crack at the harangue-utangs that have been shouting and plastering posters with gay abandon, now that election is over and the celibates are mostly celebrates. Or maybe we'd be more healthy if we kept quiet . . . only it was a colorful marathon . . . the men who go down to the "C" . . . 'n' slips.

Joe Lee's heart has reputedly been doing a few flip-flops over a certain very nice gal in his physiology class . . . we really like his taste.

Well, well, our magic lens brings Beetz, triple-super-thespian, into focus . . . La Beetz has given in and joined the "Duley" cast . . . in pants . . . can you see a be-trousered Beetz?

The stumbling staff stooges of the Golden Gater ball club got lucky and won their division championship by a forfeit. In an exhibition game put on by the Gater Staff and various other rabble picked up at random, following the announcement of the forfeiture, Dave Schutz, the Tripewriter, Pledge Lou Morris, Ken Johnson, and a couple of other lads cleaned the opposition.

Herb Veeki is double-x'ed by fate . . . the bug done got 'im . . . in the person of Becky . . . deah, deah Becky Christians . . . those eyes have been wreaking havoc with the lads hereabouts.

At Alpha Phi Gamma's publications party Wednesday night, there were a few gay moments . . . included among these we would put Dr. Ascher blasting away in an impromptu quartet, Roy Laugesen whose head hurt, Max Williamson and party who didn't stay on the porch, and Ed Smith who burned about two dozen hot dogs to a very crisp crisp.

Shame on Morley . . . lost his executive board pin . . . to one of the three sisters-with-dimples-on-the-chin. Says our informer, " . . . judging from the way she wears it, her heart's in a funny place. Maybe that explains something . . . I dunno." us either.

The Daily Trojan again pops up with a crusade against blue-book exes. They are all in favor of having red blue-books. More power to them. Howsabout having purple and gold ones for State . . . they'd be "awful pretty" and we could look at the covers in case we didn't know the ex material.

Dr. Mahan of Creighton University describes freshmen at his institution as follows: "Their minds are soft and dormant. They do not know how to work; they do not know how to study; they do not know how to reason; they do not know how to discriminate between the central core of things and the surrounding trimmings." Washington, D. C. — (ACP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt got a big "kick" out of her visit to a "certain college," for she referred to it recently humorously in a talk to the 150 Congressional wives who came to Washington with her in 1932.

"I went to a certain college," she said, "to speak twice—in the afternoon and evening. The college president was anxious that I shake hands with the audience after both programs.

"I explained that I didn't make a practice of it. But the president said, 'If you have to cancel anything, I'd rather you shook hands and didn't give the lecture'."

Princeton, N. J. — (ACP) — Criticism that college students are not allowed to break their shackles long enough to exercise initiative is being met at Princeton University by the introduction of a "free week," during which upperclassmen can carry on study independently.

This plan designed for juniors and seniors, will be conducted experimentally for one year. Upper classmen are being released from classrooms for the week preceding the annual spring vacation.

An outstanding feature of the Princeton curriculum has been the amount of self-education expected of juniors and seniors. The free study week is being established to give the student even more chance to use his own resourcefulness.

Sketching Class At 629 "Monkey Block"

On Monday and Friday nights from seven to ten o'clock, and on Thursday afternoons from one to four, Mary McKee, an Art major at State, has a sketching class in 629 Montgomery Block.

The class consists of sketching in charcoal, water colors, and pencil. There are models by which the artists get their material.

It is a W. P. A. project, which helps Mrs. McKee to attend our institution.

It's All Over — Victors Speak

By ROSEMARY ALEXANDER

Hurray! It's all over! After seemingly endless streams of political posters, handbills, ribbons, pictures, and food of all types and varieties, the big day has come, had its inning and gone.

Never in the history of state college has there been such a campaign. The spirit of enthusiastic interest shown by the entire student body, in the election as a whole was unique in itself, and best of all this enthusiasm was participated in by the voters, who broke all previous records on election day. When contacted immediately following the election returns, the various candidates, victorious and otherwise, had the following comments to make for the Student Body:

W. J. J. Smith, "The Student body has spoken, and I have accepted their mandate, and I will attempt to carry out this mandate to the fullest of my capacity."

Dawn Wilson, "Well, I am glad I won. Gee! I'll try to be the kind of Vice President the Student Body wants."

Edith White, "I'm still in the running, and once again I ask for your support."

George Mirande, "I'm glad I won, and I will heartily cooperate with every attempt made by the new administration to put State on the map."

Leon Minear, "Mirande is a fine fellow, and I feel a lot better now that it's all over."

Frank Muldoon, "Thanks, everyone. I'll see you all next year."

Hal Delma, "All I can say is thanks."

Howard Demeke, "In as much as I defeated two worthy candidates, I feel it is my obligation to work to my fullest capacity for the good of State."

Bob Barry, "Congratulations, Demeke, and here's hoping you have a successful year."

Thus with a hurray, and a sigh, we bid goodbye to another election at good old State.

NINE, TRACKSTERS END SEASONS

By DAVE SCHUTZ

HOPKINS AND ABBEY SEEKING NEW MARKS

By DAVE SCHUTZ

Tomorrow marks the end of another baseball season at State. To the great majority this rather simple, brief statement won't mean a thing, but to those really interested in the activities of the gladiators of the diamond, the parting will be sad.

Without any worry of being challenged, we definitely claim that the 1937 baseball season at San Francisco State College is the most impressive and the best season ever enjoyed by a Gater athletic group. With their final game of the year slated for tomorrow afternoon, the Purple nine has achieved the remarkable total of eighteen victories and but four defeats, truly a great record.

After losing its star pitcher, its two leading hitters, and two other first stringers, the ball club was expected to be little better than average, but showed more fight and come-through ability than anyone had ever hoped for. They managed to overwhelm practically every opponent they met.

To talk about the team without giving credit to two certain individuals really wouldn't be just. Last week we told you about "China Joe" Lee, one of the three four-year veterans; this week we want to praise the other two—Kenny Wilkes and George Bogdanoff.

Kenny first started playing baseball at State in 1934 as a freshman; in his first and second years, he led the team in batting, slugging over .400; last year and so far this season he again is right at the top, probably to finish as high as second after the last game. As a fielder, Wilkes has been terrific, he is without an equal on defense, constantly stopping hard-hit drives and tossing out runners with his strong arm. His tremendous speed has consistently made him State's leading base stealer and also an all-time great as a lead-off man.

Bogdanoff also entered into his baseball career at State four long years ago. Throughout these long seasons of prosperity on the diamond, it was Bogie from first base that was helping his team mates with almost perfect fielding. During the past two years George has made practically no errors at first, this fact far overshadowing his inconsistent, yet powerful hitting. Many times Coach Hal Harden had asked Bogie to pitch and many times

Baseball Squad Ends Season on Davis Diamond

With the record of never having lost to the Aggies, State's gladiators of the baseball diamond travel to Davis to do battle with the California Aggie Mustangs on their own home field. Last Saturday the Gaters were forced to come from behind to win in the ninth inning against these same Mustangs, and this week on a strange lot the locals are expected to have a still harder time.

STRONG HITTERS

The Aggies showed much more hitting strength than in 1936 when the Purple and Gold romped home to two easy wins. Throughout the entire contest last Saturday the local nine was in hot water because of the brilliant hitting of the Cal chain gang. One Hands Leggett looked like a real slugger, his home run in the first inning sending the Ags off to a flying start.

Playing their last game for State will be the following men: Kenny Wilkes, George Bogdanoff, Hal Wood, and Joe Lee who may make the trip. Wilkes, Lee, and Bogie will be completing their fourth year here, while Hal Wood, entering State as a junior has finished his two years of eligibility.

SENIORS IMPORTANT

All four have made names for themselves. Wilkes has been acclaimed the best fielding infielder and Wood the best fielding outfielder ever to enter this college. George Bogdanoff, although a first baseman, has often been used as a pitcher.

Starting pitcher for the game tomorrow is still a mystery. Either Stone or Jones will toss, both being in condition, not having pitched for a week.

The rest of the lineup will probably be as follows: Kenny Wilkes, short stop; Spider Turner, second base; Bill Abbey, catcher; Hal Wood, third base; Pat Bowers, left field; Charlie Iago, right field; Dick Osborne, center field; George Bogdanoff or Joe Lee, first base.

Bill Abbey, leading the team in hitting with a .531 average, has hit safely in all but one game. Kenny Wilkes has climbed into second place in the point column with a .395 total.

he would turn in a brilliant performance on the mound.

So with the dusk tomorrow, State says good-bye to another duo of scintillating seniors: Kenny and George, ball players to the end.

Spring Practice Brings Numerous Huskies to Grid

Here's how State feels about football. Spring practice has brought forth quotations which run something like this:

Quarterback, Maury Schwarz: "You can just say for me that it's the best team that State ever had."

Unknown N. Y. A. poet:

Last year

They beat Jaysee.

That's good eno' for me.

Prominent Art Major: "They say they're good. They said that last year."

Student Ellen Svane: "All I know is that when a fellow has the ball he's running for a touchdown—so I couldn't say."

Humorist Tom Thorpe: "Waal, the moleskins out this spring the more skins out next fall."

Coach Dan Farmer is panning his boys and the gold is settling. And it isn't fool's gold, either (which, by the way, is what that yellow diamond on the walls of the new Anderson annex is). Bill Plute and Hal Beseman look like tackles. They're twin peaks and there's no tunneling between them. Bill Ferem, last year's center, is tossing the pigskin to the backs with the same precision. Gassey Abbey, last year's quarterback, is still slugging the apple. Rhoda, of the Yacht Club Rhoda Brothers of San Mateo and All-Conference tackle there, hasn't walked on cleats this year—yet. John Marks who surveyed Roberts Field, knows every thousandths of an inch on our gridiron and looks like a ball totter who knows his sidelines as well as his plunges.

Six Athletes Receiving Blanket Awards at Rally

Six athletes from four various sports will receive their blanket awards for four years of athletic competition at the coming Block Awards Rally.

Leading the parade is the baseball team which has three candidates. Joe Lee, second baseman; Kenny Wilkes, short stop; and George Bogdanoff, first baseman, are the diamond stars completing their fourth year.

In basketball, Tall Cy Atkinson, captain and high scorer of State's strong cagers, will get his bed covering, while in tennis is Ronnie English, immortal among Gater netmen, never having lost a match in college competition. Completing the list is Bufford "Biff" Shreeve, track man and school record holder in the two mile.

Sweater awards, given for three years of activity in State athletics, will be awarded to the following: Baseball, Pat Bowers and Charlie Iago; Track, Stan Kuder, Steve Ebert, and Daryl Hopkins; Tennis, Joe Rosen.

Definite list of Block "S" awards will be decided at an athletic council meeting next Wednesday.

Adding up to what is the closest pre-game prediction in the history of the two-year private feud, the Golden Tide of San Francisco State's track and field aggregation will roll against the Rumbling Rams of San Francisco Junior College tomorrow on the Kezar Stadium's cinder paths. Hostilities are scheduled to begin at 2:30 p. m.

The Gaters occupy the favorite position but the margin is too scanty and the question marks on the dope sheet are too many to attempt an accurate point-score prediction. However, a consensus of the opinions of "experts" says State will win with the total of 68 to 54.

Taken collectively, the Gaters are expected to turn back the Rams in the field events, while the Jaysees should win the majority of points in the track

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

The challenge by the music federation to play the winner of the intramural baseball league play has been accepted and the game will be played about the middle of May.

tests—BUT three big question marks behind this statement could turn the dope sheet up-side-down.

The three events that will swing the tide of the battle are the high jump, broad jump, and the sprints. The high jump will be a three-way tussle between Ty Barre and Ernie Loustalot of the Rams and Daryl Hopkins of State. The Gater iron-man has leaped 6 feet on two occasions this season, while Barrie and Loustalot are capable of 5 feet, 11 inches.

Hopkins will also figure in the broad jump battle. He will team up with Errol Evans to leap against Henshaw and Kawaguchi of the rivals. All four have leaped 21 feet this season. The same two Staters will have trouble with Joe Garcia in the sprints.

The distance races seem to be the only cut and dried events on the program. The Gater aggregation of Stan Kuder, Bob Cota, Freshman Fred Kline, and Bufford Shreeve should sweep the long-winded events.

PEPPY SHOW

Cap'n Bud states, "You'll be missing something great unless you come to the show. This show has more pep and variety than any other given at State. Come on along, and we'll prove it to you."

For the first time, since its composition, the new State College hymn will be played, and Clarence Kaull, composer, will be introduced.

Some tickets are still available for the minstrel show. They can be purchased in College Hall today and at the door of Frederic Burk auditorium tonight. It is known that the show is being given for the benefit of the Franciscan, so that State can have a representative annual.

REFRESHMENTS

Lest it be forgotten, refreshments are to be sold during the intermission between the two major acts of the show. While the concession is being handled by Alpha Phi Gamma, proceeds from the sales will also go toward the year book.

Howard Brubeck, and his orchestra, have prepared interesting orchestrations for the numbers. With songs, dances, blackface, and variety numbers, all led by Interlocutor Cap'n Bud, a record attendance is expected to greet the "Ro Boat." All Staters should be on deck, and join in the fun.

Newman Club Holds Picnic At St. Mary's College On Sunday, May 2

Newman club will hold its biggest affair of the semester when members and friends of the group will go for a picnic this Sunday at the Saint Mary's College Picnic Grounds, according to Jack Murphy, president. A bus and private cars will leave promptly from the club's headquarters, 350 Buchanan street, at 9:00 a.m.

Bill Smith emphasized that the bus hired will only accommodate 36 people. For this reason he urged that all those interested in going should sign up right away in the club's poster now in College Hall. Eighty cents will be charged for a round trip ticket in the bus.

A Key Route ferry will leave at 10:40 Sunday morning. The Sacramento Northern Railway will pass through the picnic grounds. These were additional facts given out for the benefit of those who will not be accommodated in the bus.

Murphy stated that activities of the day will include sports and dancing. The sports program will include swimming, baseball, and tennis. The president further said that all those going should bring their own swimming suit and towel.

Madrigal Singers Plan Concert With Quartet

The fifth annual concert of San Francisco State's Madrigal Singers will be held in Frederick Burk auditorium May 12 at 8:20 P. M.

Assisting the Madrigal Singers will be the Recorder Quartet. Open to the public, this affair is expected by those in charge to draw a large audience from the outside.

Miriam Hopkins says: "My throat welcomes Luckies—my favorite cigarette for 5 years"

"Luckies have been my favorite cigarette for about 5 years. They're a light smoke that sensitive throats welcome. Of the many trends that sweep through Hollywood, one of the longest lasting has been the preference for Luckies. I once asked a 'property' man—who supplies cigarettes to the actors—what the favorite is. He answered by opening up a box containing cigarettes. They were all Luckies."

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Hopkins verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies.
